

Ball Toss

Students stand in a circle. Toss a ball to a student and say “Matthew,” if you are using the New Testament (say “Genesis,” if you are using the Old Testament). Student who catches the ball says “Mark” (or “Exodus”) and then tosses the ball to another student. Continue tossing the ball and saying the names of the books of the Bible in order until all the books have been named. (Optional: Print names of books in order on large sheet of paper. Display paper where all students can see it.) Repeat game as time permits. (Optional: At end of each round, each student chooses a book to find in his or her Bible.)