

Believe It or Not

(Strange but True Headlines)

For each of the headlines below, one statement is true while the other two are false. Circle the letter of the headline that you believe is true.

Headline #1

- A. Virginia man sues his palm reader, "Miss Stella," for her failure to give him the winning lottery numbers she promised.
- B. Washington D.C. woman is arrested by police for staring at White House security guards for three consecutive hours.
- C. Tennessee teen is expelled from school for dressing like the principal and mocking her mannerisms.

Headline #2

- A. CNN reports that one of the strangest things discovered in an airport lost-and-found was a NASA camera used on the Space Shuttle.
- B. CNN reports that one of the strangest things discovered in an airport lost-and-found was a 200-pound pumpkin.
- C. CNN reports that one of the strangest things discovered in an airport lost-and-found was a leather jacket worn by Elvis Presley.

Headline #3

- A. Connecticut man is accused of breaking into a gourmet food store 35 times during the last two months and feasting on lobster, champagne, shrimp and well-aged wine.
- B. Woman from Mississippi is under investigation after being caught on camera breaking into a childcare center at night to play with the toys.
- C. Texas high school student is expelled for kissing three teachers, two lunchroom attendants and the head custodian on Valentine's Day.

Headline #4

- A. New York City taxi driver runs into parked car and files an accident report stating the parked car ran into him.
- B. Chicago train conductor refuses to drive the train during rush hour until every passenger personally thanks him for his hard work.
- C. Seattle bus driver yells at and spits on every hundredth passenger to illustrate how he is treated on a daily basis.

Headline #5

- A. Twin sisters are married to the same man for four years before the unsuspecting husband makes the discovery.
- B. Two alleged drug dealers are captured while staying at the home of the sheriff, whose housekeeper invited them over while the sheriff was on vacation.
- C. A three-year-old boy is arrested for threatening his 87-year-old neighbor.