

CORRECT THEE MISTAKES

Find and correct the mistakes in this retelling of Genesis 4:1-12.

[Eve] became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, “With the help of the LORD I have brought forth one really big baby.” Later she gave birth to his sister Abel.

Now Abel kept elephants, and Cain worked the soil. In the course of time Cain brought some of the worms of the soil as an offering to the LORD. And Abel also brought an offering—fat portions from some of the largest-eared animals of his flock. The LORD looked with favor on Abel and his offering, but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favor. So Cain was very silly, and his face was painted purple.

Then the LORD said to Cain, “Why are you silly? Why is your face painted purple? If you do what is right, will you not be rejected? But if you do not do what is right, sin is a crouching tiger and a hidden dragon; it desires to hug you, but you must hang over it.”

Now Cain said to his sister Abel, “Let’s go out to the circus.” While they were in the car, Cain spit on his sister Abel and grossed her out.

Then the LORD said to Cain, “Where is your sister Abel?”

“I don’t know,” he replied. “Am I my sister’s keeper?”

The LORD said, “What have you done? Jump up and down! Your sister’s dog cries out to me from the doghouse. Now you are under a rainbow and driven from the mall, which opened its doors to receive your sister’s money from your hand. When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its worms for you. You will be a sleepy astronaut on Mars.”
